Quest for the Mylor

Part I: Multiple Choice

1. B - Every future king of Kandor must attempt the quest.

2. C - Minx can turn invisible.

3. C - Kyle must face seven doors and seven tests.

4. A - Breezer does not have a yellow circle on his chest.

5. B - Myrin is jealous and wants Kyle to fail so that he may become the heir.

6. C - Reginald demands that Kyle bring him the Mylor.

7. B - Lissa is the Mer King's daughter and the Mylor.

8. C - The scepter protects the Merpeople from Reginald and other dangers.

9. A - They pretend a worthless pearl is the Mylor.

10. C - Kyle helps others, recognizes equality, and places their welfare before his ambition.

Part II: True or False

11. True - Myrin shrinks and hides inside Kyle's pack.

12. False - Breezer lacks the yellow circle that the other Gazoos have.

13. False - Reginald keeps the scepter and threatens Kyle and Breezer.

14. True - Lissa creates the illusion that the pearl produces gold while the others retrieve the scepter.

15. False - Kyle completes only the first of seven tests; the second door appears at the end.

Part III: Suggested Response Guide

16. Kyle learns that people should be treated equally regardless of their differences and that true leaders put others before themselves. Evidence may include defending Breezer, helping the Merpeople, or risking his quest to recover the scepter.

17. Answers may discuss Kyle defending Breezer, refusing to kidnap Lissa, telling the Mer King the truth, rescuing his friends, or recovering the scepter for the Merpeople even when these choices placed his own goal at risk.

18. Answers will vary. Strong responses may suggest that Myrin could have spoken honestly about feeling ignored, supported Kyle, asked for his own responsibilities, or used his abilities to help rather than sabotage the quest.

19. Answers will vary. Students should clearly state their choice and support it with reasoning about fairness, courage, responsibility, or the possible risks and consequences.

20. Answers should explain how the characters combine courage, magic, planning, loyalty, and cooperation. The selected 'most important' contribution may vary if it is supported with specific evidence from the story.
